Since leaving his impoverished village in Haiti at the age of seven, Rene has been going an extra mile to reinvent himself. He arrived in America with 5 dollars, 2 shirts, and one pair of pants. And he didn't speak any English. Today, he is living the American Dream.

"You are one of the best speakers I have heard in a long while. I am continuously surrounded by different speakers from around the world. In fact, I do not even notice their presentations because I heard enough. That was until I heard you!"
